

Workway Established to Provide Experienced, Qualified Staff to Financial Industry

- Company focuses on serving mortgage lenders, banks and credit unions -

Burbank, Calif., Jan. 9, 2006 – Workway, a Burbank, Calif.- based staffing firm specializing in serving the financial industry, was recently established to meet the evolving staffing needs of mortgage lenders, banks and credit unions.

Workway was founded in 2005 by Matt Johnston to provide temporary, temp-to-hire and direct-hire employees. The company identifies highly qualified potential employees through an extensive screening process of interviewing, skills testing and reference checking.

Within the financial industry, Workway fills many crucial staffing positions that have a direct impact on the way financial companies do business. These positions include loan processors, bank tellers, escrow officers and accountants.

Workway currently employs 45 full-time staff in Burbank, Calif.; Irvine, Calif.; Carlsbad, Calif.; San Diego; Oak Park, Ill.; Phoenix; Orlando, Fla.; Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and Las Vegas.

“Most financial institutions have very active, working managers who are too busy to quickly and efficiently identify and hire qualified staff,” said Matt Johnston, CEO of Workway. “It is the primary role of Workway to simplify the hiring process for these busy managers and enable them to make personnel decisions, while keeping an eye on their own bottom lines.”

Previously, Johnston co-founded and operated TitleTemps, which later became OnStaff, a staffing firm serving the title, escrow and financial industries.
