

Workway Broadens Its Services to Include Placing IT Staff

- Expanded staffing services offer financial industry additional options for saving time and money -

Burbank, Calif., April 13, 2006 – Workway, a Burbank, Calif.- based staffing firm specializing in serving the financial industry, recently extended its services into the area of IT staffing and now places information technology experts with banks, credit unions, mortgage lenders and other providers of real estate settlement services.

Workway now provides staffing in 13 new areas of information technology, including e-commerce, network engineering, information security and applications development. As part of Workway's services, job seekers are given extensive skills testing and can be placed in all 50 states.

“As the financial industry becomes more technical, there is a growing demand for IT specialists with these businesses,” said Matt Johnston, CEO of Workway. “We developed our IT job placement division to help meet this growing demand and offer a wider variety of staffing options to reduce the time and expense of screening, hiring and training new staff.”

Workway provides staffing solutions for temporary, temp-to-hire and direct hire positions for the financial industry. An intensive process of recruiting, screening and skills testing assures qualified candidates for a wide variety of positions. The company currently employs 45 full-time staff and has more than 150 customers in San Diego, Burbank, Irvine and Carlsbad, Calif.; Oak Park, Ill.; Orlando and Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Phoenix and Las Vegas.

- more -

About Workway

Workway, founded in 2005, provides temporary, temp-to hire and direct-hire employees to the financial industry. The company specializes in identifying qualified candidates through face-to face interviews, skills testing and reference checks. Workway specializes in matching companies with qualified job seekers in the mortgage lending and financial industries.

For additional information about Workway, visit the company's Web site at www.workway.com.