

Workway Partners with Florida Land Title Association

- Growing membership to get specialized staffing help -

BURBANK, Calif., May 10, 2006 – Workway, a Burbank, Calif.-based staffing firm specializing in serving mortgage lenders, banks, credit unions and other providers of real estate settlement services, announced a strategic partnership with the Florida Land Title Association (FLTA), a non-profit trade association dedicated to serving the land-title insuring industry.

Under this new partnership, the Tallahassee, Fla. FLTA promotes Workway, a provider of temporary, temp-to-hire and direct-hire employees staffing, to its growing membership. The association includes more than 150 entities who employ more than 4,500 persons composed of title insurance underwriters, title insurance agencies, abstractors, attorney agents and vendors who serve the title insurance industry.

The FLTA has roots that extend back to 1914 when a group of title abstractors formed an association committed to improving the practice and procedures of searching land titles. All of the insurers who do business in Florida are members of the FLTA.

“Most insurers, like other financial institutions, have extremely self-motivated managers who are too involved with day-to-day business to efficiently recognize and hire qualified staff,” said Matt Johnston, CEO of Workway. “It is the primary role of Workway to make things easier for management and facilitate their personnel decisions.”

Workway concentrates on the evolving staffing needs of financial institutions. The company identifies highly qualified potential employees through an extensive screening process of interviewing, skills testing and reference checking.

Workway currently employs 45 full-time staff and has 150 customers in Burbank, Calif.; Irvine, Calif.; Carlsbad, Calif.; San Diego; Oak Park, Ill.; Phoenix; Orlando, Fla.; Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Las Vegas; Colton, Calif.; and Richardson, Texas.
