Las Vegas, Nov. 14, 2006 – Workway, a Burbank, Calif.- based staffing firm specializing in matching companies with competent job seekers within the financial industry, announced at the 2006 BAI Retail Delivery Conference and Expo its 4,000th staffing placement.

Workway, founded in 2005, has grown rapidly to meet the demand of financial institutions to fill staffing positions. Within the last year, Workway has opened more than five new offices nationwide and increased its temporary and direct hire service capabilities.

“It’s a challenge for many financial institutions to efficiently identify and hire qualified staff because they have very active, working managers who are just too busy,” said Matt Johnston, CEO of Workway. “Workway has met the need of these managers, saving them time and money on the hiring process and enabling them to keep an eye on their own bottom lines.”

The company provides temporary, temp-to-hire and direct-hire employees and identifies highly capable potential candidates through extensive face-to-face interviews, skills testing and reference checking. Within the financial industry, Workway fills many crucial staffing positions including loan processors, bank tellers, escrow officers and accountants.

Workway currently employs 45 full-time staff and has 150 customers in 14 cities nation-wide including Burbank, Calif.; Irvine, Calif.; Carlsbad, Calif.; San Diego; Oak Park, Ill.; Chandler, Ariz.; Phoenix; Orlando, Fla.; Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Tampa, Fla.; Las Vegas and Dallas, Texas. Workway also serves the healthcare and technology industries, placing registered nurses and medical technicians as well as network engineers and application specialists.
