

Workway Provides Staffing Services to Inuva Info Management

Burbank, Calif., Feb. 20, 2007 – Workway, a Burbank, Calif. - based staffing firm specializing in serving the financial industry, announced at the MBA's National Mortgage Secondary Show that it is providing staffing services to Miami Lakes, Fla.-based Inuva Info Management Inc.

Inuva, a provider of information processing, business process outsourcing and application software consulting to the mortgage banking and real estate finance industry, started using Workway in September to fill temp-to-hire and direct hire positions that include underwriting managers, data entry and loan processors. Inuva selected Workway because of the staffing firm's expertise within the financial services industry that enables the loan company to integrate new staff quickly and efficiently.

"Workway's ability to provide us with qualified, well trained personnel quickly is invaluable to us," said Souren Sarkar, president/CEO of Inuva Info Management Inc. Sarkar added that in order to attend to Inuva's day to day business they cannot afford the time it takes to interview, screen, process, and train the type of qualified staff that Workway provides.

"Workway's specialty is fitting qualified employees to the right financial institution such as Inuva," said Matt Johnston, CEO of Workway. "We not only make the recruitment and training process easier for customers, we help their bottomline by allowing them focus more resources and attention on the operation of their business. "

Workway, founded to provide temporary, temp-to-hire and direct-hire employees, concentrates on the evolving staffing needs of financial institutions such as mortgage lenders, banks, credit unions, title and escrow and real estate settlement services. The company identifies highly qualified potential employees through an extensive screening process of interviewing, skills testing and reference checking.
