Carol Gasgonia-Wilson Joins Workway Nursing

02.29.08, 9:17 AM ET

Workway Nursing, a division of Workway staffing firm based in Burbank, Calif. and specializing in serving the healthcare industry, announced the hiring of Carol Gasgonia-Wilson as director of nursing.

In this position, Gasgonia-Wilson implements and oversees the recruitment, hiring and training of clinical healthcare personnel. Previously Gasgonia-Wilson was director of surgical services for a San Diego area hospital where she managed the day-to-day operation of a nursing registry and recruited all new staff members. Additionally, she served as a marketing manager, human resources manager and director of nursing for a San Diego - based staffing company.

"Carol's 19 years experience and knowledge of healthcare recruiting and office management is a valuable asset to Workway Nursing, and further enhances our ability to meet the staffing needs of a variety of healthcare organizations," said Michael Agee, executive vice president of Workway Nursing.

Workway Nursing places skilled clinical professionals such as registered nurses, licensed practical and vocational nurses, certified nurses' assistants and other related staff in hospitals and long-term and skilled-care facilities. Workway Nursing has five offices in California and is opening a new office in Las Vegas in 2008.
